The Speech of the Chairman of the Board of Trustees

Dar Al-Hekma University has long embodied a leading model among higher education institutions in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia. Since its establishment, it has been guided by wisdom and a forward-looking vision that aligns with the Saudi Vision 2030 and the unprecedented cultural and developmental renaissance occurring across all sectors.

The university's founders and administrators have worked diligently, adhering to strategic plans that prioritize graduating generations equipped to serve their nation and position it among the world's leading countries.

Dar Al-Hekma University is supported by a dedicated team whose departments continuously analyze and adapt to local market trends through advanced curricula and the introduction of academic programs designed to meet labor market needs. This proactive approach also enables the university to make unique contributions to community service.

The university takes pride in achieving, for the third consecutive time, full institutional accreditation from the National Center for Academic Accreditation and Evaluation (NCAAA), a testament to its academic excellence and distinction.

Dar Al-Hekma is further honored by its alumni, whose achievements and professional successes serve as a testament to the university's mission. Each graduate has become a beacon of creativity, excellence, and innovation, embodying the vision and values instilled by the institution.

On behalf of myself and all members of the Board of Trustees, I extend my heartfelt gratitude and appreciation to the Ministry of Education and the previous Board of Trustees for their trust and unwavering support of the university's administration, faculty, and students. Their commitment ensures that Dar Al-Hekma continues its tradition of excellence, achieves its goals, and remains a pioneer in fulfilling the aspirations of our ambitious Saudi Vision 2030.

May Allah grant us success.
